

LEGAL DEFINITIONS AND RELEVANT STATE LAWS

Below are definitions and resources to help foster a better understanding of a few of the laws that support our children and victims of online crimes. If your student is in immediate danger, dial 9-1-1.

UNDERSTANDING LAWS OF ONLINE CRIMES...

Cyberbullying:

When an individual or group engages in the abuse of power and/or control to purposefully inflict harm on another via electronic means. Cyberbullying incidents for which schools can assign discipline are no longer limited to those occurring during the school day, at school-sponsored activities or on school-issued devices.
